

OFFICE OF THE VICE PROVOST FOR FACULTY ADVANCEMENT

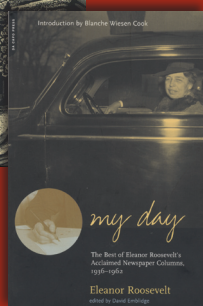

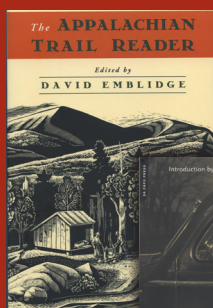

Book Publishing Fine-Tuned for Academic Authors

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30 & SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1

- ◆ UNAVOIDABLE TRUTH – Academics need to publish books for promotion and career growth.
- ◆ UNHAPPY SECRET – Most academics have no training in how the book publishing process works, and few universities or colleges have staff with any book publishing experience.
- ◆ WELCOME SOLUTION – Book Publishing Workshop, Fine-Tuned for Academic Authors:
 - ◆ An overview of the publishing process as seen from the author's and publisher's viewpoints, including where to sell your book and how to negotiate a publishing contract.
 - ◆ One-on-one consultations with a skilled, experienced acquisitions editor.

TO REGISTER: Contact Sherri Barker at 924-6865 or prov-fa@virginia.edu

Presented by DAVID EMBLIDGE

Associate Professor of Publishing Writing, Literature and Publishing Department,
Emerson College, Boston

Acquisitions Editor Harvard Univ. Press, Cambridge Univ. Press, Continuum
Publisher, Berkshire House

Editor in Chief The Mountaineers Books

Editor or Author Oxford Univ. Press, Carroll & Graf, Da Capo Press, Watson-Guptill,
St. Martin's Press, Stackpole Books, Globe Pequot Press

MA, English, Univ. of Virginia; Ph.D., American Studies, Univ. of Minnesota